His wife was a Crede of very great personal attractions. a young Kentuckian as an overseer. His wife was a Creole of very great personal attractions, and it was soon observed by the neighbors that a suspicious influacy had sprung up between her and the overseer. The husband was informed of this by some of his neighbors, and for some time he would not credit it. At last he determined he would satisfy himself, and accordingly, notifying his wife of his purpose to go to fire city, he len his house—and, returning at night, placed himself in a convenient position to observe her room.

It was not long before he discovered the overseer enter her room, and on looking through the window discovered his whe in the embraces of the said overseer, she being he her night clothes. The other barrel was directed to bis wife, but missed, and ehe ran oli into the woods, and hadner, up to the last news, been heard of.

Singertan and Fatyl. Accident.—The Indianapolis Journal states that on Monday foremon a angular accident occurred near Seymour, by which a little boy of twelve years, named William White, was fatsilly wounded. The circumstances are as follows: A young companion of the wounded boy, named James Jenkins, was trying to draw the load from a shortgun, and got the rannor dast in the barrel. In order to pull it out he put the butt of the gun between his feet, pointing the muzzle out troun him, and began pulling with all his might. His violent motions in some way jarred the lock between his feet, and discharged the load, rannoad, and all, into young White, who was standing about twelve feet in front of him. The rod passed clear through the poor boy from one side to the other, grazing if not tearing the liver, and the shot covered one side of his body with terrible look ng wommls. I must beg leave to say that I was entirely ignorant of the mortgage to the British govern ment of the Cusiom House receips at this port. Assuredly I have no intention to divert from their proper course say funds mortgaged to the British crown. In relation to the money said to have been left in the Custom House, as well as the Government paper, I have to say that I have not seen nor heard of one nor the other. Had I received such money or paper, they should be immediately delivered to you, on the statement you make concerning the mortgage to the British crown.

received such money or paper, they should be immediately delivered to you, on the statement you make concerning the mortgage to the British erown.

As to the injury done to British trade by my occupation of this town, I must be permitted to say that I am convinced any lujury now done, would be tenfold repaired by future benefits to English commerce. This, however, involves questions not necessary to discuss at present.

Touching the fulfillment of the treaty stipulatation between Great Britain and Hondarus, I must reply that no one can be more anxious than myselfforthe complete carrying out of the treaty of the 28th of November, 1859. It was in expection of this treaty's having been fully carried out, that I visited Rustain in the mouth of June last; and excuse me if, in this connection, I refer to what you call my unauthorized occupation of this port.

It would be a long story for me to tell you why I claim the right to make war on the existing authorities of Hondaras. Suffice It to say that my presence here at this time is due entirely to the engagements which I consider I had in honor contracted with a people desirons of living in Central America under the ancient laws and customs of the English realm, claiming with them common interests under the Institutions derived from the code of Alfred, I thought It no wrong to assist them in maintaining the rights they had lawfully acquired.

Asking pardon for so long dwelling in the attenuents of your letter, I have to rely that, if you deem it your duty to reestablish the former anthorities of this port, I shall do nothing causistent with honor to prevent your pupose. I cannot, under the circumstantes, regard It dishenorable to bay down my arms to an officer of the British crown, inasmnet as many of the persons compromised by their adherence to me may claim the guarantees of English subjects. In regard to aur embarking, you do not aspecify on what ressel or at whose expense such re-embarkation is to take place. Concerning the money and paper, I can only say that, as ASMICASE OF IMMORALITY—SEDUCTION AND DE VIII.—A disgracefulatfair has been in progress at llorscheads for a series of mouths, the sickening details and revolting termination of which have just come to light. It appears that Mr. J. W. Horrard, who has heretolore held a respectable position as a merchant in that place, on the first of Jamary last seduced a respectable young woman by the mane of Kaie Conway, under a solenn prouise of marriage. From that time the unformate woman seems to be completely under his control. Several weeks since, unding herself in a condition that could not long be consealed from the Inbile, the poor girl carnestly begged of her seducer to make model in the promised that he would aid her in concealing the shame. He then requested Dr. Patchen, of Havans, to produce an abortlon. This Dr. P. refused to do, when Howard undertook the operation himself, and as soon as the deed was necomplished, he furnished the gli with means to get to her friends, who reside some six miles from Oswego. She staid there a few days, when the child was born. She then throw the body into the Dswego. Creek.

Fearing that her sickness would expose her condition to her triends she returned to Horseheads, where she remained a day or two at lloward's residence. Not liking the Idea of having her sick upon his hands, Howard again furnished her with money, and started her for Oswego. On nerviving at Elmiry the wretched woman's strength gave out, and she was compelled to stop at the house of a lady with whom she had a slight acquaintance, Mrs. Herrick, residing on Ikewitt street. This was on Monday of last week. She never recovered from her prostration produced by the operation, and the overextion in journeying to and fro to conceal her shame, but streadily grew worse until Saturday evening, at a quarter before five o'clock, when death came to her relief. A warrant was placed in the hands of officer limited Reynolds. We learn that Mise Conway stated previous to her death has inlied on her twin sitter, which re

His recollection of the circumstances was not very clear, but he remembered to have been in a Fifth street faro bank, and of having played there; also that he was liberal of his funds, and that others were still more liberal in handling them. He was picked up by a watelman, who, he alleges, charged him $10 for teering his coat, which he paid, though not gratified with a sight of the rents that had been made in the official garment.—[Chi. John Bell and Black Republicanisms-A Word of Warning to the South. Mr. Bell has been on both sides of every uestion upon which he has been called to act, and for and against every public man with whom

He was for Jackson and against Jackson. He was against CLAY and for CLAY; and sub-sequently succeed at the idea there was but one man in the Whig party, and spoke of Mr. CLAY as a "great moral despot."

He was for the Bank and against the Bank.

He was for the Tariff and against the Tariff. He has voted for the reception of abolition petitions, asserted the power of Congress to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, opposed the repeal of the odious and unconstitutional Missouri line, voted with the Abolition ists against the Kansas-Nehraska bill, and with SEWARD, HALE, GIDDINGS, et id onene genne, opposed the admission of Kausas with a pro-slave ry constitution, and has been complimented and honored and applauded by the worst enemies of the South.

On the other hand, he has gone a bow-shot beyond YANCEY, RHETT, and the most decided of the so-called disunionists, declaring that the Union might exiat and be no great boon either —that he preferred disunion, separation, anything to a Union based on the Constitution and Our readers are already familiar with some of the most treasonable of his disunion sentitueuts, as proclaimed in the Senate of the United States, and we are sure they will not forget his letters against HENRY CLAY in 1826-27 (the Journal's harmless diluvian record), nor his more recent Knoxville speech, in which he referred to the violence, arson, and murder that made "Bloody Monday" a perpetual biot on the records of the country, and said it was well enough that a little blood should sprinkle the streets! We now invite the attention of the true men of Kentucky, who dare not do wrong for party ends, to the following Interesting article which we find in the Nashville Union and American of the 25th ult: The New York Tribune of the 20th speaking of the probable complexion of the next Congress notices the election of BLAIK in Missouri and says: "Col. Rollins from the same State Is a BELL man, but received every Republican vots in his district and will certainly evince no factions bootility to the administration that is to be;" that is, in the estimation of the Tribune, the LIN-coen administration.

Such is Bell-ism in Missouri. Good enough or bad enough to get the vote of every Black Republican in Rollins' district. Good enough a right," or bad enough to get the mass of the Black Reblican vote at the late election for Governor the special instance and request of the Black | Slave Law Republican candidate. Good enough or bad membered that Seward asid in the U. S. Senate:

"At last a new role issues from your own region,
FROM THE SOUTH, from the Slave Slates, and proless against your jurther presistence in this mud enterprise, [of extending slavery] and admonster you that it must and will fait. The cohorts are you that it must and will fait. The cohorts are you that it must and will fait, the nen of moderation and conservations, who, as they have Herre AND AGAINST FIREDON, will now be obliged in considency with their just and well established character and their patriotism, to Moderate Against you't
IN FAVOR OF FREEDION, AND RISE UP UNANIMOUSLY AGAINST SLAVERY."

Let it be remembered that the notorious Rusmembered that SEWAED sald in the U. S. Senate:

Let it be remembered that the notorious Bur-LINGAME who declared "he would have Judges who helieved in a 'Iligher Law,' an anti-slavery Constitution, an auti-slavery Bible, and an antialavery God," said in reference to the Kausas

"Sir, it was a proud day to me when I heard "sir, it was a proud day to me when I heard the speech of the venerable Senator from Kentucky, Mr. Crittenden. The melody of his voice and patriotic accent still sound in my ears. I was glad to hear him denonned fraud; I was glad to hear him stand for the truth." * * * " i also left proud to hear the speech of the distinguished Senator from Tennessee, Mr. BELL." Let it be remembered that the New York Tribane, a short time before Mr. BELL left the "He is as robust and hale to-day as when he burded and conquered the old lion, Addrew Jackson in his den, and as resolute and wordy to write as when single handed he browly encountered the Vitole South upon the Nobraka Bill and carried terror into their ranks. The wladom and experience of a man so eminent and pure are of no ordinary value at this time, and pure are of no ordinary value at this time, when the country is convuised with the wars of faction, and the spirit of subjugation is abroad, threatening to overshadow a new land of promise, (Kansas.) Let us hope they will be long exercised in the Senate or in some higher capacity, where the country may equally enjoy their advantage."

Let it be remembered that the New York Tribute is the senate of the country in the co bane, in 1858, when discussing the nomination of a Presidential randidate by its party, said: "Most certainly we should prefer an original Republican—Gov. Seward or Gov. Chase for instance—out we shall heartly and zealously support one like JOHN BELL, Edward Bates, or John M. Botts, provided we are well assured that his influence, his patronage, his power, if chosen President, will be used not to extend slavery, but to confine it within the States that see fit to uphold it."

Let it he remembered that soon after the defeat of the Kansas Lecompton Constitution by feat of the Kansas Lecompton Constitution by the votes of SEWARD, and BELL and CHITTEN-DES and Dot GLAS and others, who acted with them, that liorace GREELEY, TRUMAN SWITH and others tendered Mesors BELL and CRITTEN-

DEN a dinner by letter of June 6th, 1858, In "The undersigned have observed through years, with profound and increasing admiration, your cullneutly patriotic, statesmanlike and tru-ly national course in the conneits of our comnon country, signalized by devotion to the in-structions, not of a section merely, but of our while Union, and especially in a late critical and dancerons emergency, in which a perilous agristion has been calmed, and a probability of window, justice and moderation." Let it be remembered that a correspondent of the New York Times, SEWARD's organ, in discussing the probabilities as to the Chleago non-

"The caudidates prominent before the oppo-sition, are Schator Cameron, Schator Seward, Win L. Dayton, Schator BELL, Schator Critten-den, Gov. Banks, Abraham Lincoln, John C. Fremont." And in confirmation of this, the writer in the Times proceeded to detail a conversation between several "prominent Republicans," who

"That notwithstanding they were personally in favor of Seward, yet that it would be more politic to nominate a Sentherner, so that it night not be said it was a sectional struggle for power. It was further urged that BELL of Tancoco, winth most available andidate for them."

Let it be remembered that Horace Greek! in his speech at the Black Republican Conver tion held In Ossawattomie, Kansas, May 18th,

"I shall be ready and willing to support such a man as JOHN BELL, or John M. Botte, or (better still.) Edward Bates, for the next President, upon a distinct and open understanding that he wield the power with which he may thus he entrusted, not to extend and fortify slarery, but to limit and restrict it to the States whereby it is still cherished." Let it be remembered that the N. Y. Tribune in an authoritative article on the 25th of July, "The great body of the Republicans are, no doubt, willing to co-operate in the election of a President with four classes of the Oppposition:

1. Those who originally opposed the repeal of the Museum Compromise and the passage of the Kansas-Nebruska bill, and are still hostile to thuse mean-ures.

11. Those who resisted the Kansas policy of Perce and now condemn it.

111. Those who denounce the Lecompton-English

Business Notices.

11. Inose who will resust, strenuously and per-istently, the acquisition of foreign Territory, in order to increase the average slavery or this Temph-lic, and the legalization of the African slave trade, and the adoption of a slave code for the Territories by Congress. * * *

THESE? And shall those gentlemen, and those who think with them, anite and cove EFFI-CIENCY TO THEIR COMMON OPINION in the next National Administration, or by osarring for? We speak as unto whse men, judge ye what we say?

Let it be remembered that the Cincinnati

"The stupidant disloyal Southers are told to wait for over a cuts of hostility before they seede. But they have no mere seense than to believe that when a declaration of war 1. bade by one nation or people against an early that they have no mere seense than to believe that when a declaration of war 1. bade by one nation or people against an early that they have no mere against an early that they have no mere against an early the seense than to believe that when a declaration of war 1. bade by one nation or people against an early the seense that when a declaration of a second that everybody should burn with such a molton and expanded pairiotism as the editor of the John and that brillian game for the John and the before they seeded. But they have no more sense than to believe that when a declaration of war Is to hade by one nation or people against another it is not the dusty of the latter to wait for actual luvasion. If Lincoln is elected, his first bushess will be to appoint Black Republican posturasters throughout the south at all the cross roads, and as his party has uniformly and bitterly demonared the observance by our present and previous Postuneser Liceral of State laws for bit flug the circulation of lucendiary publications, the new batch of Lincoln posturasters with his Posturaster General at their head, with the power of the Federal Government at their backs, will be found in immediate conflict with the State authority. Well, civil war is a great calamity, the contingency of it to be deeply deprecated, but servile war.

It is not, therefore, so very surprising that many old fashioned and simple uninded people, living in a section that has four thousand millions of slave property at stake, and four floursand inflicts more of land, houses, mills, gins, horses and cattle connected with and dependent on it—and above all, several millions of wives and dealidren, whose lives and Parkages assorted Brooms.

Mainteined—Overt Acts of Hoshility.

Editors Louisville Courier: In his recent speech at Lexington, Mr. Breckiuridge expressed his astonishment that the affirmation of a great constructional principle should bring on a party the imputation of distintinism. And thereupon the editor of the Louisville Journal informs us that Seward, (siddings and Burlingame, profess to be contending lorgreat consiltational principles also; and, tacretore, the profession or assertion, by a party, of what it deems constitutional principles, we are the Infer is rather an indication of distintinism than otherwise. This is rather rich; but when we consider the position of the Journal, it seems to us table decidedly coad also; for the Journal lat the organ of a party that guess for the high sounding platform—"The Constitution and Laws"—and nothing else, and yet claims for that party almost the exclusive praise of unions. Mov. if vague and high sounding platform, Now, if vague and high sounding plateses, not only do not entitle a party to confidence, but, on the contrary, expose at 10 suspection and to invective, what must be the fate of the bell-Everett party, whose only prefension as a party is founded on an avoyal of devotion to the Constitution and Laws—an avowal that a'l parties make, including Seward, Sumucrand ciddings!—The Journal and other papers of the same parly make another objection to the Seeded of Mr. Breckintalge, still more ridiculous in them. They object that he did untanswer the question whether the election of Lincoln would be sufficient cause for Southern seeds on a supply was a subject to a subject the seeding states? Now, neither Mr. Bell nor his party has specked at all on these or any other questions of the day. We say taxy ware not.

sarry has spoken at all on these or any other questions of the day. We say they tare not, or if they thought that the decoration of this trinicide would augment their political strength here on he no doubt they would speak. For he pretenses that any try. com le no doubt they would speak. For presence that such reserve as theirs is the ance of dignity and property, is so rare and, and so absurd, that nobody believes a word, not even themselves. For whilst they is, in that policy in the hope of getting the fort of the dupes, of the timid, the underlying the word of the dupes, of the timid, the underlying the word of the dupes, of the timid, the underlying the word of the dupes of the timid, the underlying the word of the dupes of the timid, the underlying the word of the dupes of the timid, the underlying the word of the dupes of the great of the dupes of the d white, not only otthe questions that Mr. Breck-inridge did not answer, but on those he did an-swer.

Who re was hever contended before, that it was the duty of a candidate, or even his right, by an avering questions or by making specches, to make new and different issues for his party, beyond the platform they had adopted. It was reserved for the modesty of the stlent and re-served Bellringers to make such a demand, and to make a noisy indignation that h was not com-pited with.

served Bellringers to make such a demand, and to make a noisy indignation that it was not complied with.

But whilst Mr. Breeklnridge properly observes the o aligations of his position, and restricts thinse if mainly to the Issues made by his party, I, as one of his supporters, entertaining opinions on other questions, with which he may not agree, will take the liberty, as an individual element, if examining some of them.

The Bellringers are loud in their professions of devation to the Union. Well, as Mr. Breekmiridge observes, there are probably not fifty men in all the South who are not in tawor of preserving the Union as long as it is governed according to the Constitution. He who is in favor of it without a Constitution is a slave, and if a Southern man, a fool. But those who deprecate a dissolution of the Union he most, dwell on the contingency of civil war as the worst result of that catastrophe. Now, Mr. Douglas, in answer to one of the questions asked him in Virgiula, said that he was in favor, in case of secession, of coercing the seedlag States into submission by the mintary power of the Febral Government. Mr. Douglas, therefore, is for making civil war a certainty, in the event of a dissolution. And Mr. Douglas' answer is applanded by the Journal and other Beil organ. Now, what can be said for the consistency, the particition, the civilization, the heart, or the head of the man who, deprecating disuation chiefly on account of the motingnessy of civil war that may follow, dellicrately prisuonness for civil war in that event, and applanded it. Civil war may not follow disminon—it ong at not and will not follow disminon.

the bowers. Book larning and all that sort of thing will do to fill up with, like small trumps, but you must have the bowers to back 'emelse they ain't worth shucks. If heck rung agin you pretty strong, don't eave in and look likes slek chicken on a rainy day, but hold your head up and make 'em believe you're flush of trumps; they won't play so hard agin you. "The lived and traveled around some, Bob, and I've found out that as soon as folks thought you held out a weak hand, they'd back agin you strong. So, when you're sorter weak, keep on a bold front, but play cautions, be satisfied with a p'int. Many's the hand I've seem euchied cause they played for too timel. Keep your eyes well skinned, Bob; shon't let 'em 'nig' ou you; recollect the game lays as much with the head as with the hands. Be temperate; never get drumk, for then no matter how good your hand, you won't know how to play it; both how ers and theace won't save you, for there's sartin to lo a 'miss deal' or something wrong. And another thing, Bob, this was spoken in a low tone.) don'go too much on the women, queens is kinder proceards; the more you have of them the worse for you; you might have three and nary trump. I don't say discard 'em all; if you get load of one that's a trump, Il's all good, and ther's sartin to be one out of four. And above all, I sh, be honest; never take a man's trick won't 'on't belong to you; nor 'stip cards', nor 'nig,' for then you can't look your man in the face, and when that's the case there's in fun in the game; it's a regular 'cut threat.' So now, Bob, fanwell, remember wot I tell you, and you't be sure to win, and If you don't, sarves you right to get 'skunked'." THE RIVER was falling again yesterday, and had receded an Inch at dark, with three feet one luch water in the canal, by the mark. On the har, at Portland, there were four feet water. The weather was cloudy and warm all day, with an east wind prevailing mutil ovening when it shifted to the south, and was very warm, with light rains.

At Pittshurg, yesterday, at noon, the river was et a stand with seven feet water in the channel. That is not quite enough to let out the cosl fleet, though a few tug hoats with barges may start.
At Cancinnati, yesterday, the river had receded two inches, and the mail boat yesterday rubbed pretty hard on Grassy Flats. She was heavily freighted, in cluding the reshipped freight of the \enanga from Pitteburg. The Lazzlle kindly offered to lighten the mail boat over the bar for $300, but she came off herself without trouble, or having the safe lightened a cent.

The officers of the mall boat, yesterday, reported but four and a half feet water on the Flats, and falling. On the Portland and New Albany Bar there is but little over four feet water, and the officers of the but little over four feet water, and the officers of the Jesse K. Bell, and other boats, that arrived yesterhav, report but three feet on the har at Scnfiletown. and a good many boats detained there. The Famile Pearson, bound for New Orleans, had got over the bar, but her harge was aground. The Time was also n the bar, the Silver Wave and Sevier above the bar, and the Sunny South lying too below. Several boats were aground at French Island and other

In a conversation, the Prince and Duke of Newcastle expressed themselves highly gratified with their visit to Amerlea. Polities were throwneside, even here, to do honor to the nation's gueste. At 9 o'clock the cortege emerged from the hotel, and the thousands sent up shouts of applanuse, while the ladies waved their handkerchefs. The scene was animaled in the extreme. The Prince was driven in an open earriage, drawn by four beautiful gress, the property of an euthusiastic Irishman. The property of an euthusiastic Irishman. The property of the Prince Mayor Kepner, the Duke of Newesstle and Lord Lyons drove through the Front street, on the banks of the Susquehalma, to the Capitol, followed by other carriages, containing the Committee. They Susquehama, to the Capitol, followed by other carriages, containing the Committee. They alighted all the Capitol, and paid a visit to the Governor, in his private apartments. Governor Packer addressed the Prince in appropriate terms. The Prince briefly replied, expressing his sincere sense of the high honor conferred on him in the Capital of the great state of Pennaylvania. The Prince and suite, with the Governor, then visited the Capitol buildings, and after viewing the scene from the done of the Capitol, the party started for Washington.

From St. Louis, St Louis, October 3.—The Republican ishes a speech, delivered yesterday by ackson, Governor elect, who recently in the Breckhridge State Convention, and has since been claimed by the Breckuridge men as in favor of their candidate, therefore, committee of Douglas men was recently appointed to inquire whether he intended to suppointed to inquire whether he intended to suppoint the broader of Breckinsking lands and pointed to inquire whether he intended to sup-port Donglas or Breckinridge. Jackson's speech was n'reply to the interrogatorles pro-pounded by the committee. He commenced by stating that he was never more anxious to be understood, and desired the serious attention of every one present. "I stated emphatically before the election that I believed Donglas the nominee of the Democratic party. So I now believe."

Mr. Jackson spoks of his elforts to secur Mr. Jackaon spoka of als elforts to scenre harmonious action between the Democratic Central Committee and the Breekhridge Convention, regretting his fallure, and challenging any Breekhridge man present, to say that he, Jackaon, attered any remark in the Convention indicating that he had changed, or designed supporting Breekhridge and Lane.

The then gave his reasons for supporting Douglas, saying: "To prevent all misupprehension I now say I am for Douglas—that it is my duty to support him as the nominee of the party. I formed my opinion that Douglas was the regular nominee from the reports in the Baltimore Exchange, a Breekhridge paper, and the statements of General Clark, who until the last opposed Douglas in the Convention, and if I live till November I will vote for him, and I have never said I intended doing anything clas."
